Privacy Notice: Monitoring Information of Parents, Children and Providers using the Childcare Offer

What personal data do we hold and where do we get this information?

Personal data is defined under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) as 'any information relating to an identifiable person who can be directly or indirectly identified by reference to an identifier'. Special category data such as ethnic group or health condition has additional protection under data protection law.

The Welsh Government has access to personal and special category data of parents, carers and children receiving services from local authorities. The data that we regularly receive on parents, carers and children is explained in detail in Annex 1 to this privacy notice. Your name and contact details are not regularly passed to Welsh Government for monitoring with the data outlined in Annex 1. However, your name and contact details will be provided to Welsh Government by your Local Authority when needed for evaluation purposes. Your child's name will not be provided.

Additionally, the Welsh Government has access to personal data of childcare providers delivering services funded by the Welsh Government under the childcare offer. The data that we regularly receive on child care providers is explained in detail in Annex 2 to this privacy notice. The Welsh Government will not share your name with a third party e.g. non-government agencies and researchers unless your name is your business name which is publically available.

The Childcare Offer programme is periodically evaluated to assess the performance of the programme and help Welsh Ministers make decisions relating to the development of the policy in relation to the Childcare Offer. If you are contacted to take part in research activities related to the Childcare Offer you will be issued a separate Privacy Notice outlining how information generated by the research will be collected, held and used. Taking part in research is voluntary and you will not be identified in any reports.

Your data is linked anonymously to other data sources as part of the Secure Anonymised Information Linkage (SAIL) databank for non-commercial research purposes only, unless you ask for this linkage to not take place (see the explanatory note).

What is the lawful basis for using your data?

The lawful basis for processing information in this data collection exercise is our public task; that is, exercising our official authority to undertake the core role and functions of the Welsh Government. Some of the data we are collecting are called 'special category data' (in this case ethnicity) and the lawful basis for processing this information is that it is for statistical or research purposes.

This enables the operation of, and provides information which will help the Welsh Ministers to make decisions relating to the development of the policy in relation to, the Childcare Offer which is being delivered to improve economic and social well-being in Wales in accordance with section 60 of the Government of Wales Act 2006¹.

The data sent to Welsh Government will be used:

- to measure how well Welsh Government and Local Authorities are delivering their services to you and your child;
- to support improvements to these services;
- to allocate money to Local Authorities and others; or
- to support wider research into the provision of services to you and your child, or others;
- to link data from this form to other data sources for the purpose of evaluating the impact of the project on the individuals who take part.

The data sent to Welsh Government will not be used by them:

- to take any action in relation to you or your child, or your childcare setting; nor
- to identify you or your child in any reports.

How secure is your personal data?

Personal data is transferred via Objective Connect, a secure data transfer system. Data is stored within folders on secure networks which have access restricted to Welsh Government officials working on the Childcare Offer.

All data gathered will be reported in an anonymised format when used in statistical or research reports. No reports will contain your contact details nor any information that could be used to identify individuals. Aggregate data will also be placed on the StatsWales data website, available here:

¹ The Government of Wales Act 2006 (c. 32).

When the Welsh Government commissions an evaluation of the Childcare Offer this work will be carried out by an accredited third party (e.g. a research organisation or a consultancy company). Any such work will only be undertaken under contract. Welsh Government's standard terms and conditions for such contracts set out strict requirements for the processing and safekeeping of personal data.

How long do we keep your personal data?

Any personal data transferred to Welsh Government will be deleted three years after the date it was received.

The NHS Wales Informatics Service (NWIS) based in Swansea University also have access to a part of your personal data for a period of three months, until the data linking with Secure Anonymised Information Linkage (SAIL) is complete.

Individual rights

Under GDPR, you have the following rights in relation to the personal information you provide as part of the Childcare Offer for Wales you have the right:

- To access a copy of your own data;
- For us to rectify inaccuracies in that data;
- To object to or restrict processing (in certain circumstances);
- For your data to be 'erased' (in certain circumstances); and
- To lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection.

The contact details for the Information Commissioner's Office are: Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF. Phone: 01625 545 745 or 0303 123 1113. Website: www.ico.gov.uk
