

THE SCHOOL

The school will do its best to:

- Provide a caring, safe and happy environment.
- Develop independent, resilient, reliable pupils.
- Develop children's full potential academically, personally, morally and socially by providing quality teaching and learning experiences.
- Educate every child to his/her maximum potential regardless of race, religion, gender, ability or disability.
- Expect good attendance and punctuality.
- Listen to our pupils, valuing 'pupil voice' and fostering an ethos whereby pupils are involved in decision making about teaching and learning and school life in general.
- Encourage pupils to take care of others and their surroundings.
- Provide a broad and balanced contextualised curriculum (based on the new Curriculum for Wales and the Literacy, Numeracy and Digital Competence Frameworks) which meets the needs of every child.
- Strive to achieve high standards of work and behaviour. Parents will be notified immediately if behaviour falls below expected levels and strategies need to be put in place.
- Provide excellent teaching for learning opportunities through continual self-evaluation.
- Ensure that all teaching staff keep up to date on important educational developments and initiatives
- Endeavour to meet the needs of parents/carers and pupils with Disabilities / Needs
- Keep a positive partnership with parents, inform you of your child's progress, events, initiatives, class topics through regular meetings, newsletters and school website.
- Inform you as parents at an early stage, of any concerns we may have so that you can discuss and become involved in any matter relating to your child.
- Listen and respond quickly and sensitively to any concerns you or your child may have.
- Set regular homework menus that reflect every child's learning needs.
- Provide extracurricular activities designed to enrich and extend our pupils' learning experience.
- Keep any data you share with us safe and secure and at all times adhere to the school data protection policy. More information on how the school handles personal data can be found on the school website in the privacy notice and data protection policy.

GOVERNORS

The Governors will:

Home / School Agreement

"Our School Is For Everyone"

The signing of this agreement by all parties involved, shows a commitment towards a shared responsibility for the child's education

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) is at the heart of our school's planning, policies, practice and ethos. As a rights-respecting school we not only teach about children's rights but also model rights and respect in all relationships - Linked to Articles 3, 12, 18, 28 (CRC)
